

Le Bon Marché

Contributed by paristravelguides.org

Le Bon Marché may not be the largest shopping center in Paris - but it is one of the oldest and most personal one that you will ever visit according to faithful shoppers. The 344,000 square shopping center was built by Marguerite Boucicaut and Aristide during the late 19th century.

This store has been standing for over 100 years and still offers the latest fashion apparel for both men and women as well as housewares, and beauty cosmetics.

Le Bon Marche is located in the neighborhood of Saint-Germain-des-Pres/7th Arrondissement and is open Monday through Friday 9:30 a.m. - 7 p.m. Saturday 9:30 - 10 p.m. and is closed on Sunday.
